EXPLANATORY NOTES FOR THE 1928 NATIONAL GUARD REGISTER

1. Publication.—"The Chief, Militia Bureau, will publish from time to time an official register of the National Guard." The National Guard Register is a directory designed to show all federally recognized National Guard organizations and the classification of National Guard officers as to assignment and record of service.
2. Arrangement.—Under "Stations of Organizations" (p. 5) is shown National Guard organizations by Division, Corps, Army, General Headquarters Reserve, and Coast Defense designations. The main body of the Register is arranged in alphabetical order of States, showing the recognized organizations and the officers assigned thereto. In each State the names of recognized active National Guard officers are followed by those of officers in the National Guard Reserve. Each page is arranged in two columns separated by a vertical line. Organizational designations and the names of officers appear in the first column and the corresponding history, chronological data, or record of service in the second column.
3. Data.—In the main body the first column shows the organization and its station, the names of officers and warrant officers assigned to the organization, and certain data on each officer to include his grade, the State and date of his birth, service awards, college or university degrees, graduates of Class M ROTC institutions, General Staff Corps status, graduation at standard service schools, Air Corps rating and his present status in the Officers' Reserve Corps. The second column shows the histories of each organization, including date of Federal recognition and subsequent redesignations, and the record of service of each officer and warrant officer.
4. Histories.—In accordance with the intention expressed in previous editions, an effort is made to include in this edition brief histories for all color-bearing organizations which have had histories authorized in connection with proposals for coats of arms. Where such histories have not received final approval, the data shown are generally limited, as heretofore, to dates of Federal recognition and subsequent redesignation. Blazons and descriptions of approved coats of arms are published in this edition for the first time. It is hoped these will prove interesting and of sufficient value to justify their publication in future editions. As the same crest is used for the coat of arms of every color-bearing organization in a State, the blazon and description of the crest is published at the head of the first page of the section pertaining to each State. When an organization adopts a shield of which the principal metal and color are not in accord with the heraldic crest-wreath (twist) as blazoned, the metal and color of the crest-wreath will be changed to conform to the principal metal and color of the shield. Unless otherwise stated distinctive insignia or regimental badges will be worn by enlisted men as provided in paragraph 39 d (2) (c), AR 600-40 as changed by WD Circular No. 16, March 28, 1928, and by officers on upper portion of shoulder loops of service and white coats and olive drab shirts; on the front of service hat midway between band and crease.
5. Service.—The record of service includes enlisted and commissioned service in the Organized Militia or the National Guard, and in the authorized Federal forces. Prior to July 1, 1916, officers are credited with State service while serving under appointment by the State; subsequent thereto credit for commissioned service is given while in a federally recognized status. State enlisted service subsequent to July 1, 1916, is credited only when assigned to a federally recognized National Guard unit. Service at the Military or Naval Academy is included. OTC or SATC service is shown except where such service overlaps enlisted or commissioned service. Inactive service in the enlisted reserve forces of the Army is omitted. National Guard Reserve service is omitted except the date of last entrance in a commissioned status.
6. Form.—A record that includes both enlisted and commissioned service is shown in two separate blocks. The service in each block is arranged in chronological order of dates. Enlisted service appears in italics and commissioned service in roman type.
7. Style.—Punctuation is reduced to a minimum; abbreviations are used to the maximum. The record of service is limited to grade, branch, and inclusive dates. Each period of service includes such data. All grades authorized in the applicable branch of service are used excepting specialists' ratings. No reference is made to the organizations in which an individual served or to the manner of separation from service. The word "to" indicates a termination of service. Each period of service is continuous from date of entrance until terminated on the date following the word "to" except in some cases of a last enlistment period preceding commissioned service. Service in the Federal forces, in the ORC, and in forces or States other than the National Guard of the individual's present State appears in brackets. Active service in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps is indicated by "F" and service in other Federal forces is indicated by appropriate abbreviations. The style adopted attempts to prevent an overlap of service as to dates or class.
8. Brackets.—Brackets are used as follows: In the first column to show a commission in a lower grade authorized in lieu of one in a higher grade, and to show the latest status in the Officers' Reserve Corps; in the second column to show service in the ORC, Federal forces, and all other forces except Organized Militia or National Guard service in the individual's present State. A period of State service that runs concurrently with Federal service is interrupted but not broken by brackets.
9. Parentheses.—Parentheses are used in only a few cases and then only for descriptive purposes.
10. ORC.—The date of acceptance and not the date of appointment is shown. The latest acceptance of appointment or reappointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps appears in brackets in the first column and shows the branch, grade, date, and serial number. ORC service that does not overlap commissioned service in the National Guard is shown in the second column, otherwise ORC service running concurrently with other commissioned service appears in the first column only. No overlap of service ordinarily occurs except where an ORC commission is held during an enlistment period. ORC service appearing in the second column is continuous except where a termination is stated. Ordinarily promotions and changes in branch in the ORC which do not affect longevity are omitted in the second column. Periods of active duty under reserve commissions are indicated by appropriate notations.
11. Longevity.—The longevity pay of officers is based on commissioned service only. An effort has therefore been made to limit service in the commissioned block to such as counts for longevity purposes. Full time is authorized for commissioned service in the Organized Militia or the National Guard, or in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Public Health Service, Naval Militia, or National Naval Volunteers. Full time is allowed for active duty and one-half time for inactive duty under reserve commissions held in the Naval Reserve Force, Marine Corps Reserve Force, Public Health Service Reserve, and the Officers' Reserve Corps. Service in the National Guard Reserve does not count for longevity purposes.
12. Pay.—Officers will be entitled to longevity pay in accordance with the record of commissioned service stated in the latest edition of the National Guard Register or amendments thereto issued on MB Form 3-d. Such record is conclusive and final in the determination of all questions as to prior service. Longevity pay is not authorized for armory drills.
13. Vacancies.—Vacancies in commissioned grades are shown for a recognized organization or for an authorized allotment of commissioned personnel except in State staff. A commission in a lower grade authorized in lieu of one in a higher grade is shown for the higher grade in brackets under the individual's name and indicated by the words "in lieu of."
14. Instructors.—The names of Regular Army instructors commissioned in the National Guard are shown in the Register with the organizations to which assigned. The data on such officers will be limited in the first column to name and National Guard grade, with Regular Army grade and branch under the name. The second column shows only grade, branch, and date of Federal recognition as National Guard officers.

15. Corrections.—Errors and omissions should be reported by individual officers to the Chief, Militia Bureau, through the State adjutant general, who should verify the corrected statement of service.

16. Addresses.—The Militia Bureau does not maintain a directory of the home addresses of National Guard officers. The official address of an officer is the organization to which he is assigned or through the adjutant general's office of his State.

17. Abbreviations.—The use of abbreviations is restricted to those published in regulations. As a means of ready reference the following are given:

55 MG SQ CAV	Organized 1921-22 from new units in Butler, Conecuh and Covington Counties Coat of arms: Approved 6 Jan 25 Shield: Gules, a pairle or notched of three on each arm to dexter, on the sinister arm an arrowhead bend sinisterwise reversed sable Crest: That for regiments of Ala NG Motto: LETS GO Description: The coat of arms has been developed from the history of the country where squadron was recruited. When this country was undeveloped Gen Andrew Jackson's scouts blazed a trail for him on the trees, using three notches or an arrowhead. The trail entered Covington from the northeast and went out through Conecuh. In general, Conecuh, Butler, and Covington Counties are at the three ends of a Y (pairle). By notching the pairle the old trail is exactly indicated. The color scheme is red and yellow. the old Cav MG hat cord colors. As the trail was also marked with an arrowhead, sometimes cut with an ax and sometimes burned, the pairle is charged with a black arrowhead. The arrowhead points in the direction which General Jackson marched toward New Orleans Distinctive insignia: Approved 6 Jan 25 Shield and motto of coat of arms

127 ENGR BN (MTD)	Organized 1926 from companies originally organized in 1922 and 1924 as units of 133 Engrs Coat of arms: Approved 27 Apr 26 Shield: Gules, a pale wavy argent, a grapevine leafed per bend wavy counter-changed, in sinister chief a winged spur of the second Crest: That for regiments of Ala NG Motto: GET THERE FIRST Description: The shield is in the colors of the C of E. The arms are based on local history. When Gen Nathan Bedford Forrest of the Confederate Army pursued Col Abel D Streight in his raid through northern Alabama he crossed a river with his Arty by pulling the cannon and empty caissons with ropes and grapevines. This historical fact is perpetuated as a fitting example of how a difficulty may be overcome. The winged spur signifies the unit is mounted. The motto is said to have originated with General Forrest, who is claimed to have said "Get there furthest with the mostest men" Distinctive insignia: Approved 27 Apr 26 Shield and motto of coat of arms

158 INF	Organized 1865 as 1 Ariz Vol Inf. [F—(Civil War) 1865 service in Ariz against Apache Indians; mustered out 1866]. Reconstituted in 1 Regt Inf Ariz Militia by Territorial legislature 1877; the first unit (Co B) was reorganized 1882; other companies were organized from time to time. [F—(Mexican border) 2 June 16; stationed at Naco and Roosevelt Dam, Ariz; not mustered out; (World War) drafted 5 Aug 17; redesignated 158 Inf; service in France; not in combat; mustered out 3 May 19]. Reorganized as 158 Inf 12 Sept 24 from companies organized in 1920–1924, inclusive
	Streamers authorized: INDIAN WARS Arizona, 1866 WORLD WAR Without inscription
	Coat of arms: Approved 26 July 24
	Shield: Argent, on a saltire gules two arrows crossed of the field, in dexter fess a prickly pear cactus vert and in sinister fess a fleur-de-lis azure
	Crest: That for regiments of the Ariz NG
	Motto: CUIDADO (Take care)
	Description: The shield is white, the old Inf color. The red saltire cross recalls the fact the regiment was organized in 1865 for the Civil War. Officially the Civil War did not end in Texas and west of Texas until 1866. The arrows indicate the regiment's early service fighting Apache Indians. While organized for Civil War service and replacing the Calif Vols who drove the Confederates out of Ariz their whole service was against the Apaches, although undoubtedly preventing any attempt by the Confederates to recapture Ariz from positions they occupied in NMex. The motto has two applications—a warning to those who might oppose the regiment and a caution to those who belong to it
	Regimental badge: Approved 22 July 24; amended 11 and 25 Apr 23. On a blue shield a gila monster in gold, with "cut-out" blue ribbon-scroll at bottom of shield bearing motto "Cuidado" in gold letters. To be manufactured in pairs
	To be worn: By officers, on shoulder loops of coats and shirts, heads of gila monster to front; by enlisted personnel, on standing collar coats, heads to front; on roller-collar coats, heads to dexter (military right). On service hats, heads to dexter

ARKANSAS

JOHN E. MARTINEAU, Governor, Commander in Chief
JOE SUMPTER HARRIS, Brigadier General, The Adjutant General
Maj. EDWARD WOODFORD, Jr, QMC, USP and DO

CREST: Approved 8 May 24. On a wreath or and azure a garland of oak leaves and acorns tied with a red ribbon and upheld by a dexter hand erased at the wrist all proper.

DESCRIPTION: The motto of the State of Arkansas is "REGNANT POPULI" (Let the people rule). This is symbolized heraldically by a "civic crown," a garland of oak upheld by a right hand. The oak is also indicative of strength and the wreath of victory. The territory was originally a part of the Louisiana Purchase and the twists of the wreath are accordingly gold and blue.

WILLIAM H. ADAMS, Governor, Commander in Chief
PAUL P. NEWLON, Colonel, The Adjutant General
Maj. ALPHONSE P. ARDOUREL, QMC, U S P and D O

CREST: Approved 6 Mar 22. On a wreath or and gules a fasces paleways proper with ribbon of red, white, and blue. DESCRIPTION: The fasces appears on the seal of the State. It is a bundle of rods with a battle ax bound together with the ribbon. It was a symbol of authority in the Roman Republic. Singly the rods are easily broken, bound together they are unbreakable. The name of the State is of Spanish origin and a large portion of its area was partly territory of the Texas annexation and partly of the Mexican War annexation. The colors of the heraldic wreath or torse are accordingly gold and red.

ILLINOIS

LEN SMALL, Governor, Commander in Chief
CARLOS E. BLACK, Brigadier General, The Adjutant General
Col. RICHINGS J. SHAND, AGD, USP and DO

CREST: Approved 5 Feb 23; amended 14 Aug 24. On a wreath, or and azure, upon a grassy field the blockhouse of old Fort Dearborn proper.

DESCRIPTION: The Fort Dearborn blockhouse represents one of the earliest and most famous of the military establishments of the United States in the Northwest Territory. While not the first place in Illinois to have an American garrison, it was in reality the first permanent fort established. The original white exploration and settlement within the State was French, and the twists of the wreath are accordingly gold and blue.

	Streamers authorized: WORLD WAR Lorraine St Mihiel Meuse-Argonne
	Coat of arms: Approved 17 May 23
	Shield: Tierced in pale, gules, or and argent, a lion rampant sable armed and langued azure
	Crest: That for regiments of Ill NG
	Motto: FACTA NON VERBA (Deeds, not words)
	Description: The shield is red, yellow and white for Arty, Cav and Inf, respectively, the 124 FA having its origin in the 1 Ill Cav and 7 Ill Inf. The division of the shield suggests the pale, or the unofficial, though well known, arms of the city of Chicago, the allocation of the headquarters of the organization. The high point of the regiment's service in the World War was during the five days before the armistice when it was located on the west bank of the Meuse near Luneville in the Arrondissement of Montmedy; during this time the regiment fired continuously in support of the 89 Div. The rampant lion is taken from the arms of Montmedy and symbolizes not only the place where the regiment distinguished itself but also its fighting characteristics
	Distinctive insignia: Approved 16 May 28 Shield and motto of the coat of arms

Coat of arms: Approved 5 Nov 26

Shield: Per chevron reversed and enhanced argent and azure, in chief a cross gules, between six mullets pilewise a crenelated torch of the first flammant of three of the third, and in base an Indian arrowhead point to base of the fourth

Crest: That for regiments of Mass NG

Motto: FORTITUDE ET COURAGE (Fortitude and courage)

Description: The shield is white and blue—the old and the present Inf colors. Indian wars and disturbances are indicated by the Indian arrowhead; the cross of St George recalls Revolutionary War service; the “per chevron” division of the shield represents the “Bloody Angle” at Spotsylvania during the Civil War; the crenelated portion of the torch is representative of Spanish War service; the torch was a device painted on the 104 Inf equipment during the World War for easy identification, the three flames representing the three centuries of existence of 104 Inf; the six mullets symbolize the six major engagements of the World War

Distinctive insignia: Approved 4 Nov 26

101 Obsn Sq—Boston	Organized 18 Nov 21 Fuselage device: Approved 18 Nov 24. A blue disk edged with gold behind a sea gull in flight Description: The circle of blue symbolically represents the blue waters of Boston Harbor which nearly surround the Boston airport, the home station of the squadron. It also represents the blue skies of Mass the territory covered by the squadron in the air. The gold circle denotes the golden opportunities of the squadron for development, and the white sea gull, a bird of keen vision, superimposed upon the whole denotes the ability of the organization as an observation squadron to observe all activities that take place within sight

MICHIGAN

FRED W. GREEN, Governor, Commander in Chief
JOHN S. BERSEY, Colonel, The Adjutant General
COL. LE ROY PEARSON, QMC, USP and DO

CREST: Approved 29 May 23. On a wreath, or and azure, a griffin segreant or.

DESCRIPTION: In "La Salle and the Discovery of the Great West" Parkman described in Chapter XI et seq., the building of the "Griffin" in 1670 in the calm waters above Niagara Falls. La Salle built the ship to carry his expedition and supplies through the Great Lakes and carved a griffin for its figurehead. He did this in honor of his patron, Count Frontenac, the griffin was a portion of the count's armorial bearings. This was the first white man's ship to navigate the great waters which inclose and are inclosed by Michigan. It sailed through Lake Erie, up the Detroit River past the site of the future city, through Lake St. Clair, up the St. Clair River, through Lake Huron. It stopped at the settlement of Michilimackinac (Mackinac Island), visited St. Ignace, sailed into Green Bay and down into Lake Michigan. The original white exploration and settlement within the State was French, and the twists of the wreath are accordingly gold and blue.
